

Don't Miss the Fun!

Where: ONLINE

When: March 13, 7-9 PM, and March 14, 2026, 9-5

What: Fun and learning, while viewing awesome quilts

Cost: $20

We have some great things planned for you! In addition to seeing our new showcase exhibit, Inspired by Quilting Arts, and learning about jurying, check out these presentations.

Mel Beach – Block printing and stitched fiber art

Perlie Petrillo – Portraits

An Marshall – Soul Stories art quilting group

Ellen Schwark – Working with unusual materials

Jane Hartfield – 3D vessels

Plus, you'll learn about these phone apps: tiling images for letter sized paper, digitally "hanging" a quilt in an interior photograph, and more.

And there will be an abundance of awesome door prizes!

Schedule and Activities

Friday, March 13th, 7-9 PM—Activities will include:

Welcome and an Ice Breaker activity

Door prizes

"Inspired by Quilting Arts" showcase (see info below)

Lightning Talk

Saturday, March 14th, 10-4

Learn about jurying

Do a group jurying exercise

More door prizes!

Breakout Sessions

Optional “Lunch with Friends” during lunch break

Tech Tips

Lighting Talks

Quick “State of the Region” report from our reps, Angie and Ellen

Show and Tell

What you need to do to join in:

- After January 5, 2026, Sign up here. Deadline for registration is March 1, 2026.

Sign up

- Optional: Enter your work in the “Inspired by Quilting Arts” Showcase (non-juried) exhibit. There is no entry fee, no size requirement, and no sleeve needed. Work should be completed in 2024 or later and submitted by March 1, 2026.
- Optional: Send your Show and Tell image(s) by the deadline (TBD.)

Important dates:

Registration opens January 5, 2026

Registration deadline March 1, 2026